Ferncloud and Dustpelt

[image]

So Ferncloud and Dustpelt are well known in Thunderclan for their generous amount of kits but Ferncloud and Dustpelt are actually blood related to. Here is how, Ferncloud's mother is Brindleface, and Brindleface's brother is Dustpelt.
Dustpelt is actually Ferncloud's uncle...and her mate.

Let me know is anyone enjoyed this fun fact I have plenty more to tell :)

Dustpelt and Ravenpaw

[image]

Even though Dustpelt and Ravenpaw are the same age Ravenpaw left the clan before he received his warrior name. Dustpelt and Ravenpaw are actually brothers and became apprentices at the same time.

This was a short fact that most people probably know but I put it anyway :)

Spottedleaf

[image]

Spottedleaf one of ThunderClans many medicine cats was killed by a cat from ShadowClan named Clawface.

This is also a simple fact but sometimes people forget who killed her

Ravenpaw

[image]

Ravenpaw is actually confirmed to be dead. It is unknown how he dies yet. He gives Bramblestar one of his nine lives and when Bramblestar asks him if he died he says yes. Also he says he hopes one day Barley will join him in Starclan. This means Barley may still be alive.

This is a sad fact that I only found out a little while ago

Crookedstar

[image]

Crookedstar and his brother Oakheart we're born in an Oak Tree during a great storm. Their mother named them Stormkit and Oakkit. After Stormkit slips and falls on the stepping stones he breaks his jaw. His mother then tells Hailstar, the current RiverClan leader to change his name to Crookedkit.

Just another fact people might not know

Silverstream

[image]

Silverstream was born with two sisters named Willowkit and Minnowkit who died of greencough. Her mother Willowbreeze also died of greencough. Her father is Crookedstar and he was very protective of Silverstream.

Just a simple fact about Silverstream

Sunningrocks

[image]

RiverClan and ThunderClan had always fought over Sunningrocks in the old forest territory. RiverClan believed Suningrocks belonged to them and it was part of their territory. ThunderClan believed Sunningrocks was rightfully theirs and was their territory.

They both used to think that piece of territory was theirs

Graystripes Parents

[image]

Graystripes Parents
Thanks Dayessirocks for the idea

Graystripes parents are Willowpelt and Patchpelt
Patchpelt and Willowpelt are siblings and their parents are Swiftbreeze and Adderfang
His parents are siblings and they have a kit together
Warriors never ceases to amaze me.....

Enjoy the fact
(Btw that's my cat)

Leopardstar

[image]

Leopardstar was the leader of Riverclan after Crookedstar died. She led the clan for a long time and she eventually died in the lake territory and Misystar took over. Most people probably know this but Leopardstar actually died of diabetes.

Poor Leopardstar :(
Anyways thanks for reading and enjoy:)

Tigerstars Death

[image]

Tigerstars Death
When Scourge killed Tigerstar he took all of his nine lives granted by star clan. Scourge actually hit all nine of Tigerstars major organs when he killed him.

I don't really like Tigerstar but.....still I feel sorta bad
Anyways enjoy :)

Starvation

[image]

Starvation
When the clans left the old territorys they left some cats behind. These cats we're Frostfur, Shadepelt, Loudbelly, and Speckletail. Sadly they all ended up dying of starvation a few moons after the clans left.

I seem to want to put sad facts this week I apologize :(
Anyways I guess....enjoy :)

Cinderpaw and Brackenpaw

[image]

Cinderpaw and Brackenpaw
These two apprentices we're actaully apprentices before they we're six moons old. Their mother had two other kits the same age as them. Brightkit and Thornkit.

Their was some breaking of the warrior code here I see
Enjoy :)

Dry-Paw

[image]

In Warriors Leopardstar the leader of Riverclan was originally born a dry-paw. This meant that she was born with a hatred for water. The term dry-paw is used in Riverclan for a cat who is born that hates water.

Simple little fact about Leopardstar, Enjoy :)

Spoilers

IF YOU HAVE NOT READ BRAMBLESTARS STORM DON'T READ

In Brambleclaws Storm one of my favorite cats die. I just read that book and felt like putting this in here.
Bramblestar is the new leader of Thunderclan
Dustpelt dies
Brambleclaw let's kittypets into the clan
Sandstorm and Graystripe retire to the elders den.
The camp floods but no one dies
Toadstep, Icecloud and Hazeltail all died of Greencough

Random spoliers from Bramblestars Storm

Stormfur and Squirrelflight

[image]

So I have been rereading Warriors and I am on Moonrise in The New Prophecy. I came across this really weird thing and am going to copy it straight from the book.

"Nearest the cave entrance, Tawnypelt's brother, Brambleclaw, was stretched out beside Squirrelpaw, who slept in a tight ball. Stormfur felt a stab of jealousy at the sight of the two ThunderClan cats together, and tried to push it away. He had no right to admire Squirrelpaw, and her courage and bright optimism, as much as he did. When they came from different Clans. Brambleclaw would make a much better mate for her." From page 15 of Warriors: A New Prochecy, Moonrise

I found this very suprising and interesting so I hope everyone enjoys

Tigerstar

[image]

Yay I am finally updating again

Tigerstar was only given his 9 lives because he was a strong leader and at the time ShadowClan was in desperate need of one. He was gifted his 9 lives even though some of StarClan dis not agree with it

Enjoy, I guess

M.C. Hunting?

[image]

Here's a few little odd facts about Medicine Cats (M.C.)

Most medicine cats are still trained to fight and hunt even if they were never warriors before they became a medicine cat. They even go out on hunting or border patrols. The only cats that really don't hunt or fight are medicine cats that are hurt or have a weakness like Cinderpelt and Jayfeather. This is also the reason why Leafpool could hunt when she was forced to be a warrior after the reveal that she had kits

So that's just a few little facts about medicine cats enjoy :)

Hammerclaw

[image]

Here's another fact. I am hopefully going to be updating daily again now so enjoy :)

Tigerclaw was originally going to be named Hammerclaw because that suited him better but his name was changed because cats would not know what a hammer was.

I think that name would of suited him a lot better to be honest Anyways enjoy :)

Tigerheart and Dovewing

[image]

So here's just a random thing I learned from Bramblestars Storm

Dovewing gave up on Tigerheart after the great battle and chose Bumblestripe as her mate. Tigerheart doesn't really seem to care as Dovewing sees him hanging around with a she-cat from his Clan and acting friendly with her.

Nice job Tigerheart, Dovewing rejects you so you go find another cat to be mates with :) enjoy

Remembering

[image]

I just realized this but it is true. In Bramblestars Storm it had only been a few moons since the Great Battle but since then even more cats have died

After the Great Battle the apprentices from ThunderClan have to honor and remember which cats does and how. Then a few moons after the Great Battle there is a bout of Greencough and more cats die.

Foxleap died because of his wounds after the battle
Sorreltail died of her wounds because she wanted to stay with her kits after the battle
Ferncloud died defending the nursery from Brokenstar during the battle
Hollyleaf died of her wounds during the battle
Firestar died after he lost his last life in the battle
Mousfur died after she fought bravely in the battle
Hazeltail died of Greencough
Icecloud died of Greencough
Toadstep died of Greencough

ThunderClan lost a lot of cats in a really short amount of time Cinderheart I'd the only she-cat with kits right now and Graystripe, Millie, Sandstorm, and Purdy are all elders, almost half the she-cats died in the battle and the remaining ones are not expecting kits. Poor ThunderClan

Anyways just a fact I guess

BloodClan

[image]

Here's some more facts

BloodClan is led by Scourge who used to be called Tiny. He hated the teeth and claws in his collar but put up with them to make him look stronger. Bone was sort of like a deputy and the cat that killed Whitestorm. Bone was then chased down and killed by a bunch of apprentices. Barley was once part of BloodClan too.

So here's just some facts about BloodClan. If anyone wants a specific topic for a chapter just tell me

Hawkfrost

[image]

Here's another fact today about Hawkfrost

Hawkfrost fell in love with Ivypool during training but never showed it in more than compliments.

So really short and simple but sadly I have like no time today

Powers

[image]

Here's another fact
Its in the Kin of Your Kin Prophecy

Jayfeather is blind but with the prophecy he can read other cats minds. Lionblaze becomes invincible and Dovewing has the ability to hear far away. They all lose there powers though after the battle is over. Lionblaze and Dovewing have the hardest time adjusting back to just being normal

Okay so here was just another little know fact but I put it anyways

Jayfeather, Lionblaze, and Dovewing

[image]

(He can't find the stickˆ)
So here's a little fact on Jayfeather
Enjoy

Jayfeather, Lionblaze and Dovewing are all reincarnations of former drive cats. Jayfeather was Jay's Wing. Lionblaze was Lion's Roar. And dovewing was Dove's Wing. Jayfeather becomes Jay's Wing when he is back in time with the ancient cats.

So enjoy. I am finally off school, yay. So hopefully I can update more often.

Thistleclaw

[image]

So I have decided to complete this book. This will be the last chapter. I hope everyone enjoys and if you have any auggestions for a new book im always open to requests :)

Tigerstars mentor Thistleclaw originally went to StarClan but was chased out by Bluestar to the Dark Forest.

Hope everyone enjoyed the last chapter :)
